Welcome to the world of looking fabulous!

Some women live to shop...I shop for a living. My name is Janice and I own a personal shopping service in Hollywood, California called Angel At Your Door. Have you ever wondered how great it would be to have someone dig through your closet, completely revamp your style, and go shopping for you? Well, ladies, you've got it! From now on, I am your personal shopper.

My inspiration for writing this book is to unlock the mysteries of building a fabulous wardrobe so that you can dress perfectly for every occasion. This is a manual for the everyday woman just like you, no matter your age or pocket book. Imagine me stepping out of a posh Beverly Hills closet and into your soon-to-be fabulous wardrobe!

I love my job, because I really do make a huge difference in my clients' lives. When a woman first calls me, I hear the frustration and anxiety in her voice. To invite a stranger not only into her home, but her most sacred place—the closet, is downright terrifying. She confides in me her constant struggle to feel put together enough to make it out the door.

Inside the closet, my clients are ashamed for not being organized, for not shopping correctly, and for.... gasp.... not having any taste. Ladies, step away from the ticketed, unworn items, and let the professional take it from here.

I've been in and out of a thousand closets and I know that women keep a lot of hopes, dreams and memories alive on those hangers. Through the years I have seen everything from 80's puff sleeves, resembling rain clouds to jeans with 8 inches zippers yielding swollen bellies and flat bums. If I recall correctly, my own closet housed a few of those gems. Trust me, before I developed this method, even I went into my own closet with complete angst and confusion. Thank God that's all in the past. Welcome to the present, my friend. Everyone, including you, is capable of leaving behind decades of closet dreads and wardrobe blues.

Until now, only my clients and closest girlfriends could revel in the secrets and tricks of my trade. I want to give you the same information and advice that has helped them look and feel so fabulous. Over the years I have realized that buying a few outfits doesn't do the trick. You need a method—a systematic roadmap to build and maintain your closet. That's why I'm here, to give you the knowledge and guidance to build a lifetime of fabulous wardrobes. From the basic pieces to the final touches, we are in this together!

Now is the time to embrace a whole new you. By dressing well on the outside, you will feel so much more confident, accomplished, and fantastic on the inside. If I can bring you one ounce of the transformation that occurs during the final fittings with my clients, then I have done my job. I am so excited that you have taken the plunge into discovering a new and fabulous you!

Life is all about a little wisdom, a lot of spirit and always looking fabulous!
